Type of work (book chapter, thesis etc.):

Title:

I, the author, hereby grant the following usage permissions to the University Library of Rhine-Waal University of Applied Sciences, content manager of the OPUS Publication Server:

I hereby authorize the University Library to publish and store the work indicated above on the OPUS Publication Server of Rhine-Waal University of Applied Sciences, to make it freely accessible online at no additional charge and to duplicate it without restriction. I retain the right to further publication of this work.

Furthermore, I hereby authorize the University Library to share this work and its associated metadata with other libraries, subject-specific repositories and academic search engines for long-term digital archiving purposes, as well as with the German National Library in accordance with German law. In some cases, this may require conversion into a different file format, but with no alteration to content.

I certify that publication is not impeded by any copyright or licensing issues which would infringe upon the rights of third parties. Should my work have been previously published (e.g. by a commercial publisher), I further certify that secondary publication on the OPUS Publication Server does not infringe upon the publisher's rights. I am obligated to inform the University Library of any potential legal issues immediately.

I understand that I am solely responsible for the content of my work and hereby indemnify the University Library from all third-party claims. At no time does the University Library assume responsibility for the content of my work.

To ensure reliable citability for others, adjustments or alterations to this work are prohibited after publication, excluding changes to file type.

If this work was produced by multiple authors, it may be published only with the signed consent of all authors.
