

Accreditation of internships for study course at Rhine-Waal University

Student

Student ID Nr.

The following activities have been executed during the internship. The course coordinator will evaluate the relevance of the internship to the studies and eventually accredit the period. The accredited period depends on the duration of the internship. Please present the original of the certificate of the institution of your internship with details on duration, activities and results.

internship at institution/company	period with hours per week	activities	accreditation with signature/date course coordinator

The preparatory internship is

- ☐ completed and documented

Kleve,

seal Dean's Office

signature course coordinator